THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 20, 1906.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:15 a. m. and sets at 4:51 p. m. High water at 12:07 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section cloudy tonight and Friday, with occasional rain; warmer Friday; variable winds.

Christmas Music.

Next Sunday in most of the Alexandria churches the choir will sing the glad tidings of Christmas and special music will be the order of the day. Of course the music will be a feature at the Christmas services and several of the churches have been engaged for some time in practicing the elaborate programmes to be rendered on that day.

At the Washington Street M. E. Church South the music for Sunday, December 23, will be as follows:

Morning service—Anthem, "Where is He That is Born King of the Jews," H. P. Danks; anthem, "Watching Over Their Flocks," J. B. Herbert; solo, "The Universal King," Edward Marz, Dr. C. E. O'Connell.

Evening service—Anthem, "Blessed be the Lord, God of Israel," Caleb Simpson; anthem, "The Hush of Night Hath Fallen," Wm. R. Pence; solo, "Bethlehem," Chas. M. Davis, Miss Margaretta Vierkorn.

Choir—Soprano, Miss Annie Vierkorn, Miss Ethel Grimes, Miss Mary Mays, Mrs. Field and Mrs. O'Connell; alto, Miss Maggie Vierkorn, Miss Maggie Pierpoint, Mrs. Gilliam and Mrs. Hufsch; tenors, Messrs. F. E. Boyer, F. H. Hill and J. H. Hayes; basses, Mr. M. L. Dinwiddie, Dr. C. E. O'Connell and Mr. A. L. Jamison; organist, Miss Alice E. Thomas.

St. Mary's Church.—Mass. Georgian Chant; Offertory, Adagio. The following compose the choir: Jos. Monroe, organist; P. F. Downey, choir master; Robert Wenzell, Leo P. Harlow, E. F. Birrell, H. L. Wheatley, E. M. Birrell, Geo. W. Pettet, T. J. McFarland, R. L. Carne, Jr., G. A. Harlow, Edw. Harlow, Frank Monroe, Frank Lightfoot, Thos. H. Fegan, Philip Crilly, Jas. Callan, Carl Richmond, Jos. Monroe, Jr., R. L. Norris, Thomas Downey and Edw. Downey.

Police Commissioners.

A regular meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night. Mayor Paff presided and all the members were present.

Chief Goods appeared before the board and submitted his report. Among other things the chief stated that the new rules formulated for the government of the force were working in a satisfactory manner.

William and Walter Clive and Messrs. Lee and Talbot handed in applications for the position on the force made vacant by the resignation of Officer James T. Smith. Two of the candidates had passed the age limit and neither could be elected under the following rule:

"In selecting new members of the police force to fill vacancies, no man shall be eligible who is less than 5 feet 8 inches high, or weighs less than 145 pounds, or who is less than 21 years or more than 40 years of age."

Another meeting of the board will be held at 5:45 o'clock tomorrow evening, at which time other applications, it is said, will be presented for the vacant position.

Marriage of Ex-Mayor Strauss.

As was announced in the Gazette, ex-Mayor Henry Strauss, of this city, and Miss Fannie Herzog, of 1311 Madison avenue, Baltimore, were married yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. C. A. Rubenstein, rabbi of Har Sinai Temple, in the parlor of Mr. J. J. Fay, on Madison avenue. Mr. Fay, who is brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away. The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit, and after the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the immediate families of the contracting parties. Late last night Mr. and Mrs. Strauss left for this city. They intended to go on a bridal tour through the South, but the inclemency of the weather prevented the trip. The bride is 44 years old and is the daughter of the late Levi and Eva Herzog, of Baltimore. Mr. Strauss is 71 years old, and has filled several public offices in Alexandria. For more than 15 years he was a member of the School Board; served two terms as the chief executive and has been a member of the Council several times.

Fined for Gambling.

Chief Goods and Officers Bell, Jones and Garvey last night made a descent upon five men while the party was engaged in a game of poker in a house of upper Duke street. They left collateral for their appearance this morning in the Police Court. When the case was called one of the accused failed to answer to his name and forfeited $10 collateral. The others, who were present, pleaded guilty. One was fined $20, he being the proprietor of the house, and the others $5 each. Mr. L. H. Machen represented the accused. Several men who were witnessing the game were summoned to appear as witnesses, but they could not be found when the case was called. Orders were issued for their arrest for contempt.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Frank Johnson, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, was dismissed.

A white man arrested by Chief Goods and Officers Bell, Jones and Garvey charged with gambling, was fined $20, and four others arrested by the same officers on the same charge, were fined $5 each.

Christmas Edibles.

The M. Schuler Beef Company has one of the most tempting displays of Christmas edibles that can be found in this section of the country. Apart from a choice line of fancy groceries, canned goods and the best grades of fresh, salted and smoked meats which they always carry, the store is stocked with goods selected especially for the holiday season. The prices at which the articles in stock are offered are attracting purchasers from all parts of the city. The advertisement will be found on this page.

Personal.

Mr. French Uterbeck and Miss Sadie Kane were married last night at the parsonage of the Baptist Church by Rev. Dr. Fisher.

Mr. William J. McCall and Miss Madeline Kraft-Richards were married this evening at St. Mary's Church parsonage by Rev. Father Kelly.

Mrs. Martha A. Henry continues quite sick at her home on Duke street. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boothe last night very beautifully entertained the Senior Euchre Club at their handsome residence on Washington street. The games were exciting and interesting and at the close Mrs. H. F. Robertson, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, Mrs. G. L. Boothe and Mr. Laurence Stabler were awarded the prizes.

Rev. J. E. Thacker, who has been the guest of Mr. A. H. Thomson for the past few days, left last night for his home in Norfolk.

Cameron Club.

Miss Richards, of Washington, will give the first of her series of five lectures under the auspices of the Cameron Club on Friday night, December 28, at 8 o'clock, at Lee Camp Hall. The subject for four of the lectures will be current topics, and will be given successively on Friday, January 11, Thursday, February 7, and Wednesday, March 6. The final lecture on Monday, April 8, will be illustrated by stereoscopic views from Paris to Oberammergau and the special attraction will be Davidseil. The usual method of obtaining tickets has been through the club members, but as Miss Richards is so extremely popular the request has been made that a limited number of tickets will be placed for sale at Mr. Allen's drug store.

Deaths.

Mr. Washington E. Lewis died at his home, No. 213 north Payne street, at an early hour this morning. He was 26 years old, and a native of Washington. Mr. Lewis leaves a widow and one child.

Myrtle May, infant daughter of Mr. Frank and Mrs. May Lawler, died at her parents' home, No. 221 north Pitt street, at an early hour this morning. Mr. M. E. Enoy, brother of Mrs. B. F. Taggart, died at his home, 133 Clinton Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., this morning. The deceased was a highly cultured gentleman and had many friends in this city who will regret to hear of his demise.

Fire.

The alarm of fire this morning was caused by a blaze in a small frame house on the north side of Commerce street, between Payne and West. The Columbia engine and the Relief Hook and Ladder truck responded, but the Reliance company did not receive the alarm, owing to defective telephone service. The damage to the house was slight. The fire was caused by an overheated stove.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.] W. E. Wrenn vs. Southern Railway Company; damage suit for $2,000 for injuries to horses; verdict for plaintiff for $450.

This evening demurrers were heard in the cases of the Columbia National Sand Dredging Company vs. G. F. & O. D. Railway Co., Church, Kerr, and others.

Charter.

The following charter has been issued by the State corporation commission: The Globe Life Insurance Association (Fraternal) of Alexandria, Va. John J. Tunstall, president; Frank I. Gregory, vice-president; Charles W. Hyde, secretary, all of Washington, D. C. No capital stock. Objects and purposes: Fraternal insurance.

Snow, Rain and Sleet.

The northeast wind of yesterday was followed by cloudy conditions toward the close of the day, and early in the night snow was falling. Later rain set in, and this morning the streets and sidewalks were covered with sleet, which rendered walking difficult. The temperature has been raw and cold throughout the day.

To be Illuminated Tonight.

All arrangements have been made by the Alexandria Electric Company for lighting stores in this city some time tonight by electricity. Light have been placed in about thirty buildings. The street lamps will not be ready for service until the middle of next month.

An Alarming Situation.

Frequently results from neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills; the best and gentlest regulators of Stomach and Bowels. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadwater & Sons, druggist. Price 25c.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, at whose laboratory Kool is prepared, assure us that this remarkable digestant and corrective for the stomach conforms fully to all provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A meerschaum pipe will be drawn for tonight at 8 o'clock at "the Segar store."

As stated yesterday, a special meeting of the City Council will be held tonight.

A dog was shot and killed on Lee street, south of Prince, last night, and its body was still there this evening.

Mr. Luther Carter has sold for Mr. James Baumgartner a house and lot on Seminary Hill to Mr. Frank M. Silcott.

Alva Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held their regular meeting last night, but transacted business only of interest to that order.

The Thursday Night Assembly will give their Christmas dance on the night of Thursday, the 27th instant, and not tonight, as was stated yesterday.

A colored man from Fairfax county came here yesterday and getting drunk lost his horse and wagon which, however, were returned to the station house and reported that he had lost his dog which he also requested the police to find for him.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Wm. P. Woolls and Son, who will have a large stock of fancy turkeys for the Christmas trade.

DON'T FORGET—Messrs. Blondheim & Swift have fresh graded Horse Radish for sale in the City Market, 25c a quart.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Benson Taylor, of Drury, Md., and Lula M. James; William Simmons, Jr., and Lucy B. Murray, both of Edinburg; Richard Boiling and Nanette Seay, both of Fredericksburg; James I. Kidwell and Katherine E. Arnett, both of Bluemont; George O. Ward and Mary C. Lynch, both of Alexandria; Dennis Cowling, of Casanova, and Grace C. Barrett, of Oxon Hill, Md.; Jarvis A. Branson, of Meadows, Md., and Nettie Marvey, of Cherrydale, and to Luther J. Pattle, and Bertha J. Polen, both of Catharpin.
